

HEALTHIER LIVES

Fact sheets ON health and people with intellectual disability FOR families, advocates, disability workers and other professionals

Edited by Jim Simpson
NSW Council for Intellectual Disability

Revised Edition 2012

NSW CID will update the fact sheets on our website each year.

See www.nswcid.org.au for updates

© Copyright NSW Council for Intellectual Disability 2012. All rights reserved.

CONTENTS

Note that some fact sheets are in two categories.

	Sheet number
Acknowledgements	A
Life stages
Diagnosis and Assessment of a Disability	1
Children – Signs of Illness	2
Children – What Kinds of Health Services are There?	3
Adults – Signs of Illness	4
Adults – What Kinds of Health Services are There?	5
Ageing and Health	6
End of Life Care	7
Keeping healthy
Healthy Lifestyles	8
Annual Health Assessments	9
Preventive Health	10
Dental Care	11
Health problems
Children – Signs of Illness	2
Adults – Signs of Illness	4
Ageing and Health	6
Dental Care	11
Challenging Behaviour and Health	12
Mental Health	13
Alcohol and Other Drugs	14
Causes of Intellectual Disability and Health Care	15

CONTENTS continued

Sexual health

Sexuality	16
Contraception	17
Managing Menstruation	18

Finding the right help

Finding the Right Doctor	19
Diagnosis and Assessment of a Disability	1
Children – What Kinds of Health Services are There?	3
Adults – What Kinds of Health Services are There?	5
Going to the Dentist	20
Mental Health	13
Specialised Intellectual Disability Health Services	21
Getting the Most Out of Medicare	22

Dealing with health professionals

Finding the Right Doctor	19
Going to the Doctor - Tips & Tricks	23
Helping the Doctor Understand the Person	24
Personal Health Records	25
Going to the Dentist	20
Going to Hospital	26

Healthy carers

Health Issues for Families and Support Workers	27
--	----

Rights and complaints

Consent to Medical Treatment	28
Rights and Complaints	29

More information and contacts

30

Acknowledgements

Many people have contributed to the Healthier Lives fact sheets in this folder. NSW CID developed the proposal for the project with the Department of Family and Community Services, Ageing Disability and Home Care, which funded the project. NSW CID executive director Carol Berry coordinated the overall project.

The fact sheets were researched and written by Jenny Galea, Helena O'Connell, Edwina Pickering and Jim Simpson.

A range of experts provided input to the content of fact sheets, reviewed drafts and have advised on updating the sheets in 2011:

- Parents/ advocates - Maria Circuit, Diana Qian, Maria Heaton and Christine Regan.
- Doctors – Alexis Berry, Helen Beange, Bruce Chenoweth, Bob Davis, Ros Davis, David Dosseter, Seeta Durvasula, Lyn Lee, Robert Leitner, Nick Lennox, Jacki Small, Andy Smidt, Helen Somerville, Julian Troller, Jane Tracy and Carolyn West.
- Dentists - Emma Jay, Leda Mugayer and Natalie Oprea.
- Other health and disability professionals – Chris Atkins, Mary Ellen Burke, Jan Capizzi, Jane Chivers, Liz Dore, Linda Goddard, Lynn Kalkman, John Le Breton, Meredith Martin, Penny Kearney, Ruth Went, Michele Wiese, Jurgen Wille, Julie Thompson, Matt Jessimer, Melinda Smith, Graham Swift and officers at the Department of Health and Ageing and Statewide Disability Services, Corrective Services NSW
- Lawyers and complaints agencies- Esther Cho, Sue Field, Ben Fogarty, Andrew Haesler, Kathryn McKenzie, Diane Robinson and Ian Thurgood.

A further 25 family members and disability workers “audience tested” three of the fact sheets. Disability Enterprises and McCall Gardens assisted with this process.

NSW CID staff and board members assisted in various ways with the publication and uploading of the fact sheets– Aine Healy, Julie Maloney, Katie Mears, Sandra Pell, Sue Warth, Lee-Anne Whitten and Helena O'Connell.

Expertise in layout and design was provided by Giselle Haber, and Web Design by Averniss. The printing and additional design work was completed by Finline Print and Copy Service.

The fact sheets for families, advocates and workers were produced in liaison with Yvette Proud's writing of a parallel set of sheets for people with intellectual disability.

Many thanks to all of these people who have provided such valuable contributions.

Jim Simpson
Editor